The offices of the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute of Tuskegee, Alabama, have gradually matured a plan which should very deeply interest the young men and women of the race who are seeking an education. This plan enables young men and young women to attend school at night and work at an industry or trade during the day, or in the case of those who are able to pay a small monthly sum, to attend school during the day and at the same time learn a trade or work at some industry. This improved plan gives superior opportunity for literary and academic training and at the same time, gives equal opportunity for the learning of a trade. Last year thirty-six states were represented by students at Tuskegee, and nine foreign countries. The attendance during the coming year promises to be very large and the class of students promises to be of a high grade.

Smith has the most attractive and best lighted store on the avenue.

THE HOME, THE SABBATH SCHOOL AND THE THEATER.

Less than fifty years ago it was the custom in all well-regulated homes to make Saturday a day of preparation for the Sabbath. Extra baking was done. The home was put into good order, the shades were drawn, and mother and children, after making themselves tidy, assembled in one room, the children to study their Sabbath school lesson, the mother to do this little thing or that. Can you not bring to your mind such a peaceful scene and can you wonder that the girls brought-up after this fashion grew into home loving young women and made desirable wives and mothers?

Their mothers were not compelled to rack their brains continually to furnish excitement for them or deny themselves actual necessities to give them carfare and tickets to the theater.

How many mothers stop to think when they start their daughters off to a play, what sort of influence that play is going to make upon a young mind, or how the excitement will work up the nerves of her child and unfit her for study, how her growth will be retarded or her mind polluted by wicked words and sinful sights.

Yet, mothers send their little girls to the play on Saturday afternoon, because these little girls have not been taught to be happy anywhere else.
They, (the mothers), stay at home and delve and work, thinking that some day they will get their reward by seeing Mary and Maud shine in society.
And Mary or Maud will shine, too, if there happens to be born in them enough good to overcome the lessons in treachery, debauchery and crime, that their loving mothers sent them to the theater to learn.

There are good plays, but few of the children of this generation take any delight in seeing them.

Save your money and your children, too.

Then, to the young woman who has spent half of Saturday night in the theater wrought up to a high pitch of excitement, the church services next morning are very tame by comparison.
The playhouse is a poor place in which to make preparation for a real Sabbath, and no better a place for the training of home-makers.

THE RISING SON.

By Joe Sephus.
The Poetical, Practical "Ad" Writer of Kansas City, Mo.

The Rising Son has just begun To make a good impression; So send in "ads," your name and "scads,"
And we will make concessions.

The Rising Son good work has done;
Its aim is for the best.
Again we say, subscribe and pay,
And we will do the rest.

The Rising Son wants every one To read and scan its pages, For there you'll find food for the mind,
From the poets and from the sages.
Office, No. 117 West Sixth street, Kansas City, Mo. Lewis Woods, business manager.

"I'M NEXT TO YOU."
Frazier Smith and Jack Burnett wrote it this way:

CHORUS. (Always join in.) Well! Now I guess that I'm next to you And I see your little game; In the morning I'm going down to ask the judge

To give me back my maiden name;
You have trifled 'round in this here town,

To me you ain't been true—Now your home is GONE, so be amblin' on,
Cause I'm certainly NEXT to you

IT IS MATTHAES.

The man I wish to mention was once "That Little Baker." But now he covers lots of territory.
If you want some bread,
And of course you do,
Send for Matthaes' make,
It will just "hit" you.
If you want some cake,
And of course you do,
Send for Matthaes' make,
It will just "hit" you.
Hence I will boldly say,
We have others by the way,
But to Matthaes can't compare, So I say to one and all Give him a steady call, He'll treat you fair and square.

CURL-I-CURE

A CURE FOR CURLS

You owe it to yourself, as well as to others who are interested in you, to make yourself as attractive as possible.

Attractiveness will contribute much to your success—both socially and commercially.

When you meet a person your first impression is governed largely by his or her appearance. The same applies to you. If you are attractive, beautiful, trim, neat and look fresh and well kept, how much better the first impression will be than if you look like hundreds of others—no individuality—mussed up, and as though you had no interest in your appearance. Nothing adds to or detracts from a lady's or gentleman's appearance so much as the hair. Nothing indicates their character, their gentility, good breeding, their taste, so much as the hair. We all know how much care is taken of the hair by all the leading society ladies in all the large cities. We know how much pride a successful man takes in his personal appearance. If you have no individuality you enjoy no advantage. There is one way and only one way in which you can overcome this great handicap and make your hair as beautiful, rich and attractive as the finest head of hair you have ever wished for. Curl-I-Cure, a cure for curls, will do it. It is different from anything you have ever heard of or seen. It is new to you but old in itself. Curl-I-Cure is but another name for one of the greatest and most wonderful preparations which has ever been discovered. It has been used by the leading doctors all over the world, every nation, for many years as a private formula for hair and scalp defects and always brings perfect results.

Curl-I-Cure is an ideal, safe preparation and makes kinky, curly hair straight. We guarantee it absolutely. It is a scalp tonic, cleans and softens the many fibers of the hair, making them soft, silky, pliable and easily managed. Positively prevents the hair from becoming dry, harsh, brittle and keeps it from breaking off. No matter what you have tried, no matter what you want, you are doing yourself an injustice if you do not try Curl-I-Cure. We guarantee it positively to do the work better, quicker and with less effort than any other preparation of the kind in the world. Regular retail price, 50 cents per jar. Curl-I-Cure is manufactured only by the Southern Chemical Works, Chicago, Illinois. Our reputation is a guarantee that our preparation is absolutely pure and harmless and will straighten the hair without the use of hot irons or hair pinners and will not cause it to break off and become dry and brittle. Price, 50 cents. We pay all express charges. Send post office or express money order, as we do not ship goods C. O. D. Write name and address plainly to

SOUTHERN CHEMICAL WORKS 323 Dearborn Street, Chicago, Ill.

Remember, the more you brush the hair with a stiff hair brush, the sooner you will obtain the desired results.

known in Kansas City. Today he is one of the best known and most successful Negro business men in the city.

HARBIN TRAGEDY.
The Harbin tragedy still remains a mystery. The fact is it may never be solved. Until we learn more concerning the facts in the case we will refrain from touching upon the matter.
We knew Mr. Harbin for a number of years. He was not classed as a bad negro. We knew him as an industrious, hard working man.
